SHERMAN & HYDE'S COLUMN.

WEBER PIANOS ARE THE BEST

Never before in the history of piano forte manufacture has an instrument risen so rapidly in popular favor.

Its intrinsic merit and decided superiority over all others has caused every musician and artist of note to adopt and recommend it.

Nilsson says, "I shall take every opportunity to recommend and praise your instruments."

Miss Kellogg says, "Your Pianos are my choice for the concert room and my own house."

Lucca says, "Your uprights are extraordinary instruments, and deserve their great popularity."

Patti says, "I have used the Pianos of every celebrated maker, but give yours the preference over all."

Strauss says, "Your Pianos astonish me. I have never seen any Pianos which equal yours."

Wehli says, "Madame Parepa called your Pianos the finest in the United States. I fully endorse that opinion. They have no rival."

FOOTSTEPS ON THE OTHER SIDE.

Sitting in my humble doorway
Gazing out into the night,
Listening to the stormy tumult
With a kind of sad delight.
Wait I for the loved who comes not,
One whose steps I long to hear;
One who though he lingers from me,
Still is dearest of the dear.
Soft he comes—now, heart, be quiet,
Leaping in triumphant pride;
Oh! it is a stranger footstep,
Gone by on the other side.

All the night seems filled with weeping
Winds are wailing mournfully;
And the rain tears altogether
Journey to the restless sea.
I can fancy, sea, you murmur
As they with your waters flow,
Like the grief of single beings
Making up a nation's woe.

Branches, bid your guests be silent!
Hush a moment, fretful rain!
Ere, so, stop sighing, let me listen—
God grant not again in vain!
In my cheek the blood is rosy,
Like the blushes of a bride;
Joy!—alas! a stranger footstep
Goes by on the other side.

Ah! how many wait forever
For the steps that do not come!
Wait until the pitying angels
Bear them to a peaceful home,
Many in the still of midnight,
In the streets have lain and died,
While the sound of human footsteps
Went by on the other side

BOWS AND ARROWS.—The following is an extract from a letter, under date of February 11, 1776, from Benjamin Franklin to General Lee:

"They still talk big in England and threaten hard; but their language is somewhat civiller, at least not quite so disrespectful to us. By degrees they come to their senses, but too late, I fancy, for their interest.

We have got a large quantity of saltpetre, one hundred and twenty ton, and thirty more expected. Powder mills are now wanting; I believe we must set to work and make it by hand. But I still wish, with you, that pikes could be introduced, and I would add bows and arrows; these were good weapons, and not wisely laid aside:

1. Because a man can shoot as truly with a bow as with a common musket.
2. He can discharge four arrows in the time of charging and discharging one bullet.
3. His object is not taken from his view by the smoke of his own side.
4. A flight of arrows seen coming upon them terrifies and disturbs the enemy's attention to business.
5. An arrow sticking in any part of a man, puts him hors du combat till it is extracted.
6. Bows and arrows are more easily provided everywhere than muskets and ammunition."

An English admiral used to be fond of relating that, on first leaving his humble lodgings to join his ship as a midshipman, his landlady presented him with a bible and a guinea, saying: "God bless you and prosper you, my lad; and, as long as you live, never suffer yourself to be laughed out of your money or prayers."

The young sailor carefully followed the advice through life, and had reason to rejoice that he did so.

Never let your honest convictions be laughed down. Be true to yourself, and in the end you will not only be respected by the world, but have the approval of your own conscience.

A man called at a post office in Maine, purchased a three-cent stamp and requested the clerk to put it on the letter for him. This the accommodating clerk offered to do, but asked him why he did not do it himself. The answer was that as he could neither read nor write he could not, but after some instruction he was pursuaded to try, and succeeding, was much pleased to discover that although he was uneducated he could lick a postage stamp and affix it to an envelope.

A widow at Rugby, England, brought action against a butcher the other day for killing her parrot, which he said he had shot thinking it was an owl. The companion of the dead bird was brought into court, and during the trial never ceased to advise the disputants to "shut up" and "shake hands."

During the recent tornado a couple of Pennsylvania boys were up in a tree stealing cherries. The tree was carried off, and neither the boys or tree have been seen since. Moral: Never tell a lie.

Rural hospitality is highly spoken of. A stranger can't take lodgings at any country inn, they say, without a certainty of being immediately waited upon by any number of big bugs.

On the 25th of June a vacant lot on John street, Quebec, was covered with ice and snow to the depth of three feet, and carts were removing it in order that the land might be built upon.

The swiftest regular trains between Washington and Baltimore run forty two miles of the distance in fifty minutes.

Some statistician announces that more people have been killed by accident on the Fourth of July than were killed in the Revolutionary war.

The value of a man's education cannot be estimated by the price he paid for it.

HINTS TO GIRLS CONCERNING HOUSE-KEEPING.

Don't keep going to your mother. You have every one of you some little independence of money or some possibility of economizing it. Buy your own utensils; set up your own establishment, if only by slow degrees. You will know the good of it then; and you will be settting up your character at the same time. There will be no sudden violent resolution and undertaking, which drafts aid and encouragement from everybody about you, getting up prospective virtue by subscription, and upsetting half the current order of the household for an uncertain experiment. Be in earnest enough to make your own way, and before you or anybody else thinks about it, you will have become a recognized force in the domestic community; you will have risen into your altitude without assumption, just as you are growing, by invisible hair-breadths, into your womanly stature.

Then, some day you may say to your mother, "Let me have charge of the china closet and pantry, please;" and you may enter upon a new realm, having fairly conquered your own queendom. And I can tell you this new one will be a pretty and a pleasant realm to queen in; an epitome of the whole housework practiced in dainty, easy little ways. Shelves to be kept nice, wiped down with a soft, wet cloth wrung from the suds that cups and silver have come out bright from; cups and silver, plates and dishes, to be ranged in prettiest lines and piles and groups on the fresh shelves; cupboards to be regulated with light daily touches and replacements; yesterday's cake or cake basket, fruit or jelly, custards or blanc mange, to be overlooked and newly dished for the next table-setting; the nice remnant of morning cream to be transferred to a fresh jug and put in a cool, clean corner; to-day's parcels, perhaps, to be bestowed; and the doors closed, with a feeling of plenty and comfort that only the thrifty, delicate housewife—who knows and utilizes the resources that are but uncomfortable odds and ends to the disorderly, heedless, procrastinating one—ever has the pleasure of. All this is, cosily and in miniature to the larger care of kitchen and larder, what the little girl's baby-house has been (if she began, like a true woman-child, to "spin and weave" for her womanly vocation) to the "house of her own" that she—you—began to talk of then, and that you are earning a right to now. And pretty soon this daily care,—this daily pleasure,—will have become a facile thing, a thing easily slipped into the day's programme, and never to be a mountain or a bugbear any more, either to do or to teach; because you "know every twist and turn of it," and it is not a process of conscious detail, but a simple whole that you can dispose of with a single thought and its quick mechanical execution.

In like manner, again, you can take up cooking. You can learn to make bread, until the fifteen minutes' labor that it will be for you to toss up the dough for to-morrow's baking will not seem to you a terrible infliction, when it happens that you may have it to do, any more than the mending of a pair of gloves for to-morrow's wearing; simply because it will be an old accustomed thing that you know the beginning and the end of,—not a vague, untried toil looming in indefinite proportions that are always the awful ones.—St. Nicholas.

Curran's ruling passion was his joke. In his last sickness his physician remarked in the morning that he seemed to cough with more difficulty; he answered, "That is rather surprising, as I have been practising all night."

A Berlin mechanician has invented a steam velocipede which is said to answer admirably. The engine is heated with petroleum, and, being placed on the two back wheels, does not interfere with the convenience of the driver.

Brigham Young says that the invisible to Salt Lake is being filled with salt deposit, and that within six years the lake will overflow and inundate that part of the country. He was told this by God—in a vision.

A Rochester man, who had become crazy from the effects of a sunstroke, drowned himself in the cistern a few days since, because his wife said that he must wash his face.

Every winter the water from a spring at Chittenden, Vt., freezes and fills a deep gorge with ice, and all summer the residents in the neighborhood are supplied from this source.

THE INTERESTING SIGHT IN CONGRESS.

One of the most interesting phases of congressional sight seeing occurs when little children come on the floor of the House to visit their dignified papas. Half frightened and shy, the little mites are led by the door keeper; they scarcely look up till the dear, familiar face is in sight; then with a bound and a laugh, whose gladness is fully answered by the father's smile, the child nestles closely in papa's chair, as it were a throne, and papa looks so proud of his darling that all the gentlemen about him catch the pleasure.

There's Reagan, of Texas, a great, burly, ponderous fellow, looking as if nothing could ever move him; smiles are so rare on that sober face that when they do come they don't seem at home one bit; but his little boy comes in, climbs all over him, takes all sorts of liberties with books and papers, and the grim face relaxes, the busy brain stops considering party problems, and the father plays with his child as if Congress were of no possible consequence. Once in a while a little girl strays in, making a bit of brightness among the black coats on the floor. I don't believe children were ever half as pretty before as they are now, and when one of these darlings in her picturesque dress does appear, every man with any little ones at home claims a bit of the child's attention.

A distinguished professor in one of our theological seminaries relates the following; Being in Germany, with a red covered book in his hand, a German, supposing the book to be "Murray," asked in English if he was an Englishman. The professor replied in German that he was not. The conversation turned upon an object of architectural beauty near at hand, in the course of which the professor incidentally raised the question of its cost. "Sir," exclaimed the German instantly, "you are an American!" "How do you know that?" rejoined the professor. "Sir," continued the German, striking an attitude and assuming a tone of great solemnity, "upon the resurrection morn when we stand before the Great White Throne, the first question of every American in the whole assembly will be, 'How much did that throne cost?'"

THE SIZE OF THE FLAG.—The accurate proportions of the American ensign are: Depth, ten nineteenths of its length, thirteen red and white stripes alternating, and beginning and terminating with the red. The union is a blue field seven stripes deep and two fifths the full length of the flag. It should contain as many stars as there are States in the Union, placed in equi-distant horizontal and vertical lines.

For wear and fastness of color, U. S. flags, and for that matter, flags of all nations, should be made of good bunting, a material that is, or supposed to be, manufactured from the very best wools, though much of the bunting offered for sale contains a mixture of cotton. This makes it cheaper, but detracts from its beauty and durability.

George Francis Train, so asserts Jennie June in a Baltimore paper, "is now generally considered a lunatic.' She says that he sits ten hours every day on a shaded bench in Madison park, petting children who play there. He will shake hands with no adult, for fear it might take strength out of him; and he says that he is developing a will-power that will in time enable him to kill anybody by a mere exertion of his mind.

Half tipsy one day Tom Marshall met his old friend, Dr. Breckenridge, and said: "I have just read your work, 'The Knowledge of God, Objectively Considered,' and I am glad to find that you have no objection to God." "As one of His representatives on earth I can tell you he has great objections to you," said Breckenridge.

The Boston Common Council passed a resolution at its last session, petitioning Congress for the gift of twenty-five cannon captured either in the Revolution or the war of 1812, to be used in the erection of a monument to Thomas Jefferson and John Adams, in accordance with the suggestion made in Mr. Winthrop's oration.

A sensible writer advises those who would enjoy good eating to keep good natured, for, says he, "an angry man cannot tell whether he is eating boiled cabbage or stewed umbrellas."

It was a little dressmaker girl that looked out of the window as a drove of Texan steers went by and remarked that their horns seemed to be out goring.

A Boston physician says that blowing cornets or trombones is the best exercise for women, expanding their lungs, and making them straight.

A NIAGARA INCIDENT.—In the Summer of 1816 three men living about three miles above the Falls, saw a bear swimming in the river. Thinking he would be a capital prize they started for him in a large, substantial log canoe or "dug-out." When they overtook him he seemed quite obliged for their attention, and quietly putting his paws on the side of the canoe, drew himself into it, notwithstanding that they vehemently belabored him with their paddles. As he came in on one side two of the men went into the water on the other side. The third, who may be called Fisher, could not swim, and naturally felt somewhat embarrassed. Much to his relief the animal deliberately sat down in the bow of the canoe facing him. As the noise of the rapids and roar of the Falls reminded him they were ominously near, Fisher resolved to take advantage of the truce and pull vigorously for the shore. But when he began to paddle the bear began to growl his objections, enforcing them at the same time with an ominous grin. Fisher desisted for a while, but feeling their constant and insidious approach to the rapids, he tried again to use his paddle. Bruin then raised his note of disapprobation an octave higher and made a motion as if to get down and "go for" for him. The man who swam ashore soon, however, re-appeared, in another canoe, with a loaded musket, shot the bear, and ended the terrible suspense of Fisher. Bruin weighed over 300 pounds.—Scribner for August—Midsummer Holiday number.

RULES FOR FARMERS.—The following are good rules:

1. Select good land, and reject sterile, no matter how cheap.
2. Raise no weeds, but only profitable crops.
3. Underdrain, wherever needed.
4. Adopt a good rotation of crops, and adhere to it.
5. Provide sufficient shelter for domestic animals.
6. Keep everything connected with domestic animals neat and clean.
7. Plow well, cultivate well, do all work well, and not slipshod.
8. Accumulate and save manure, and apply it properly.
9. Procure good implements, and take care of them.
10. Raise good animals and take care of them.
11. By weighing and measuring, and with careful accounts, ascertain just what every crop, every animal cost you and find out just what is the market value of each.
12. Employ then those crops and animals which you find give you a good profit and drop all all else.

You can thus have the satisfaction of knowing that you are carrying out Ricardo's two famous rules for acquiring wealth, namely:

1. Cut short your losses.
2. Let your profits run on.—Country Gentleman.

To cleanse wood-work, save the tea leaves for a few days, then steep them in a tin pail or pan for half an hour, strain through a sieve and use the tea to wash all varnished paint. It requires very little "elbow polish," as the tea acts as a strong detergent, cleansing the paint from all impurities, and making the varnish equal to new. It cleans window sashes and oil cloths; indeed, any varnished surface is improved by its application. It washes window panes and mirrors much better than water, and is excellent for cleaning black walnut picture and looking-glass frames. It will not do to wash unvarnished paint with it. Whiting is unequaled for cleaning white paint. Take a small quantity on a damp flannel, rub lightly over the surface, and you will be surprised at its effects.

ELECTION, NOVEMBER 7, 1876.

Last Sunday night, at about nine o'clock, a cloud burst over the Diamond range of mountains, thirteen miles east of Eureka, Nevada, which resulted in the drowning of thirteen Chinamen who were engaged in chopping wood, and probably several Italians who were encamped in the canon getting out timber. Suddenly a column of water twenty feet high rushed upon them, drowning all but one Chinaman. The Italians were camped a short distance above the Chinamen, and as no trace can be found, it is feared they all were drowned.

The Boston Journal of July 13th says: During the severe thunder storm of Tuesday, Miss Lizzie Clapp, operator at the Readville station on the Boston and Providence Railroad, was instantly killed. She had disconnected the wire and was standing near the instrument in conversation with her sister, a lady visitor and Mr. Davis, the depot master. The ball of fire struck the telegraph wire some distance from the station, and running along it struck Miss Clapp on the neck. She uttered a scream before she died. Her gold necklace and ear-rings were melted. She was about 18 years of age.

The Postmaster General has notified postmasters of amendments to the postal laws, concerning lotteries, and says: It will be observed that by the amendment, letters and circulars relating to lotteries, without regard to this character of such lotteries, are declared unmailable, and that the depositing of such letters or circulars in a Post-office to be sent by mail is an offense to be punished, upon conviction, by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500, and the cost of prosecution.

A terrible explosion occurred on Monday last in the Black Diamond Coal Company's works, resulting in the loss of life to six persons and the burning of five others. The explosion was caused by the igniting of the dry coal dust which had accumulated in the chutes, crosscuts, breasts and gangway from a blast fired in one of the breasts.

On Wednesday last the Democratic State Convention made the following nominations for Electors: First District, Stuart Taylor; Second, J. H. Budd Third, Barclay Henly; Fourth, Frank Gruhnall; At Large, J. O Shorb and John S. Hager. Luttrell was nominated for Congress from Third District.

Governor Irwin continues to pardon convicts for "gallant conduct" during the late fire at the State Prison. The surest road to pardon is to burn the prison again. The Governor offers sufficient encouragement.

OUR ALPINE MINES.

After years of patient waiting the "oldest inhabitant" of Alpine is now realizing a change in the mining business of our county, and since the busy days of '64-5 there has not been that activity in mining affairs that we are now witnessing. Since the opening of the season a large number of claims have been relocated, and many others have changed hands—mostly in the interest of London capitalists, who are investing largely after a thorough examination of our mineral resources by competent mining experts, who have been sent to this county on special missions and in different interests, their reports invariably agreeing as to the mineral wealth of the county. In addition to these favorable reports several London capitalists, who had invested largely in two of our prominent claims, have come out expressly to look after their investments and to satisfy themselves as to the propriety of investing British gold in far distant Alpine, and departed well pleased with the situation, and made further investments on the strength of what they saw when here, so that the entire series of ledges in the Scandinavian canon are now—with but very few exceptions—in the hands of Londoners, and preparations are being made to commence operations on several of these ledges. To perfect titles and prevent blackmailing operations after our mines have become sufficiently developed to excite the cupidity of unprincipled men U. S. Patents to a large number of claims have been applied for, and two have been obtained—Lady Franklin and Silver Cloud. In the Silver Mountain District unusual activity prevails. The Exchequer mine only awaits the completion of the O'Hara Champion Furnace at the Company's mill to become one of the dividend paying mines of the country. A large number of men will be put in the mine to take out ore as soon as the furnace is ready to operate. After a suspension of over two years, work has been resumed on the I X L under auspices that will insure its continuance and early development. Arrangements are making to start work on the Adolphus and Pine Tree and adjoining claims. In September the office of the Mountain Company is to be removed to San Francisco, and soon thereafter work will be resumed on this claim, after a suspension of eight years, excepting the work required by the mining laws. In the Monitor District work is being prosecuted with commendable energy on the Advance, the shaft—a three compartment one—being down some three hundred feet. When depth is attained the Advance will undoubtedly become a paying institution. New and more powerful machinery is being placed in position in the commodious addition just erected for the hoisting works, and the indications are these improvements have not been made any too early, as it is thought that the shaft will soon cut the ledge. At the Flint, preparations have been made for hoisting works, which are promised from the Eastern owners. The Globe Company will shortly apply for a U. S. Patent to their claim.

The dark clouds that have so long rested on our Alpine peaks have burst, and we are now beginning to receive the flood of foreign capital so desirable in opening up a silver mining district, and those whose confidence in our mineral wealth impelled them to remain here and battle with adverse fortune during a decade of years will yet be fully recompensed for their years of hopeful waiting.

The Silver bill having been signed by the President, trade dollars are not a legal tender. Government can now exchange $50,000,000, silver coin, for greenbacks.

The Mechanics' Institute Fair will open at San Francisco on August 8th.

ROOMS OF THE UNION REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE,
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 23, 1876.

The next Union Republican State Convention for the nomination of SIX Presidential Electors and SIX Alternates, and a State Controller, to fill the vacancy caused by the decease of Hon. J. W. Mandeville, the late incumbent, will be held in the City of San Francisco, on WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 9, 1876, at Dashaway Hall, south side Post street, between Kearny and Dupont streets, at 10 o'clock A. M.

In calling the Conventions for the election of delegates, the Committees of the several counties are recommended to invite all Republican electors, and all other voters, without regard to past political differences or previous party affiliations, who are opposed to reviving sectional issues and desire to promote friendly feeling and permanent harmony throughout the country by maintaining and enforcing all the constitutional rights of every citizen, including the full and free exercise of the right of suffrage, without intimidation and without fraud; who are in favor of the continued prosecution and punishment of all official dishonesty, and of an economical administration of the Government by honest, faithful and capable officers; who are in favor of making such reforms in government as experience may from time to time suggest; who are opposed to impairing the credit of the nation by depreciating any of its obligations, and in favor of sustaining in every way the national faith and financial honor; who hold that the common school system is the nursery of American liberty, and should be maintained absolutely free from sectarian control; who believe that, for the promotion of these ends, the direction of the Government should continue to be confided to those who adhere to the principles of 1776, and support them as incorporated in the Constitution and laws; and who are in favor of recognizing and strengthening the fundamental principles of National Unity in this Centennial Anniversary of the birth of the Republic.

The apportionment of Delegates is as follows:

The following from the Coast Review, the only Insurance Journal on the Pacific Coast, to the point:

"For faithful and economical management, the Mutual Benefit has a record equal to any Company in America. Its dividends paid to gross premiums received, have been LARGER than those of any other Company for the past ten years, and its average ratio of expense of management to income, since its organization, only amounts to 8 and 76-100 per cent. It is PURELY MUTUAL, dividing up the surplus annually with the policy-holders. It is a sound and reliable organization, under judicious management, and entitled to the full confidence and liberal patronage of the public."

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

CLOUD BURST.—On Saturday noon last a cloud, which had been hanging over Monitor for three days, burst at the head of Gorski and Leviathan Canyons. One third of its waters rushed down the former canyon upon Monitor, carrying with it boulders, sand and logs. The alarm was given by the Indians stampeding from the canyon and, with yells, climbing the mountain slopes. In a short time the houses were vacated, and men, women and children safely perched upon the slopes, watching the surging torrent. Fortunately but little damage was inflicted, the logs, one 30 feet long and 3 feet diameter, becoming jammed a few yards below Maxwell's stable, thus saving the town from being washed away. Many of the rear posts of the above stable were carried off, and one side of Stephenson's saloon was slightly injured. The waters from the Leviathan Canyon washed away the camps of McNorton's sheepherders, and Kappelman's horsemen, they losing everything. No damage was done to the Leviathan property.

ASSESSMENT ROLL.—The Assessment Roll of Alpine county is a curiosity, as regards equal valuation. We cite two instances: Holes in undeveloped and non patented mines are assessed at $750 each, while a patented mine, known to be rich, is put down for the paltry sum of $1,500; and yet a bona fide offer of $15,000 for that mine was refused. It is simple justice to the Assessor to say that in this instance the Board of Equalization reduced the original amount of $10,000 to $1,500. And how the Board, posted as it was on the situation, could thus act is beyond our comprehension. Taxation in any form is bad enough, but unequal taxation is an abomination.

MURDERED.—John Neubaner, a late resident of Silver Mountain, was murdered near Bakersfield on the 18th, by a traveling companion whom he had fallen in with and allowed to ride one of his horses, being on his way to the Coso mines from Los Angeles. The deceased left here some two months ago with about $600, and was in the habit of showing his money—a habit resulting in his death, as he had $200 on his person when last seen alive.

ACCIDENTS.—On last Thursday week, at Monitor, Supervisor Mercer fell from a scaffold while at work at the hoisting-works of the Advance mine. The shaking up he received necessitated a settlement by a retirement for about a week. On Sunday afternoon last, at Monitor, Lizzie Cathy, aged four years, fell and broke her left arm below the elbow.

NEW RULING.—The Sacramento U. S. Land Office having ruled that the applications for patents must be made for each ledge separately, and that one application must not include a series of ledges, this departure from former rulings of the Commissioners has been appealed to at Washington by Manager Chalmers, the Exchequer and Imperial mines being in question.

REAL ESTATE SALES.—Thomas W. Legget has purchased all the buildings and lots, in Silver Mountain, belonging to John Bolis, of San Francisco. R. H. Ford has purchased the Severs property adjoining the Alpine House. Residents are ready to purchase when opportunity offers.

SILVER KING ROAD.—The road between Monitor and Silver King, having been put in complete order by J. P. Ray, is now open to teams. It is worthy of note that Mr. Ray performed this good service at his own expense.

PERSONAL.—United States Deputy Mineral Surveyor Leander Hawkins, having finished surveying the mines, left this morning to resume his duties at the State University.

TO BE PATENTED.—Robt. M. Folger, Attorney in fact, has been instructed to apply for a United States patent for the Globe mine, located at Monitor.

BEING SURVEYED.—U. S. Deputy Surveyor Hawkins is this week surveying the Balaklava mine for the purpose of having it patented.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—The Board of Supervisors will meet in regular session on next Monday week.

ITS WORK.—The Board of Equalization met on Monday last, and reduced a few assessment to former figures.

COUNTY JAIL.—The Exchequer mill is in receipt of an order for 7,000 feet of lumber for county purposes.

EXPECTED.—Parties from San Francisco are expected here next week to examine some of our mines.

SHINGLE MACHINE.—A shingle machine has been placed in position in the Exchequer saw-mill.

FROM WOODFORDS.

WOODFORD'S, July 28, 1876.

What is to hinder getting up a Hayes and Wheeler Club somewhere in the county? We certainly have the material for a first-class glee club, providing there is any one to make a move in the matter. Last week was an eventful one for this part of the country in the way of storms at this time of the year. We had thunder storms almost daily, and on Friday a terrible hail storm passed through Diamond Valley, and hammering the vegetables unmercifully, passing down through Fredericksburg; and to help things along a cloud bursted and came near sluicing out some of the farmers, literally covering their gardens and potato fields with sand and debris. Up this way we had a gentle Hayes and Wheeler rain, the hail only effecting Tilden men. A great quantity of hay in Carson Valley was badly damaged. The weather is fair this week and we are "making hay while the sun shines." Fishing parties from Virginia and Carson have been bagging great quantities of fish in Hope Valley and at Silver Lake. They report the fishing as being A No. 1. At Silver Lake, one party caught over 1400 fish in less than twelve hours, and we saw an invoice of about 200 pounds sent to friends in Carson and Virginia. Brother Pratt preached his farewell sermon here last Sunday. He is inclined to think the Alpiners a tough set. Mrs. Carlson has gone to San Francisco for her health. S. D. Sackett, an old resident of Woodfords, who left here about six weeks ago with the avowed determination to never come back, has returned, after ruralizing a while at Murphys.—He thinks that Alpine is not the worst place in the world, after all. They all come back. There is to be a social hop at the Corners to night—a kind of a split between a surprise party and a free dance; nationality, mixed. The wires are down and news scarce. We are sleepy and will fly up to roost.

A HEALTH PROMOTING STIMULANT.

Physicians, who certainly ought to be the best judges of such matters, declare that wholesome stimulation is not only desirable, but essential in many instances. When the temporary good effects of a sound stimulant is confirmed and rendered permanent, as in the case of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, by the action of tonic and alterative principles combined with it, it becomes infinitely more efficacious as a renovant of physical energy and a corrective of those conditions of the body which invite disease. The Bitters have received the emphatic sanction of medical men who have observed the effect of that popular stimulative cordial as a remedy for weakness, nervousness, dyspepsia, constipation, inactivity of the liver, malarious fevers, and many other disorders. Its basis is sound old rye, the purest liquor known to commerce, and itself possessing tonic properties of no mean order.

PROBATE NOTICE.

IN THE PROBATE COURT OF ALPINE County, State of California:

In the matter of the Estate of JOSEPH FENLEY, deceased.

MEDICAL.

TASTELESS MEDICINES.

A prominent New York physician lately complained to DUNDAS DICK & CO. about their SANDALWOOD OIL CAPSULES, stating that sometimes they cured miraculously, but that a patient of his had taken them without effect. On being informed that several imitations were sold, he inquired and found his patient had not been taking DUNDAS DICK & CO.'S.

What happened to this physician may have happened to others, and DUNDAS DICK & CO. take this method of protecting physicians, druggists and themselves, and preventing OIL OF SANDALWOOD from coming into disrepute.

PHYSICIANS who once prescribe the Capsules will continue to do so, for they contain the pure Oil in the best and cheapest form.

DUNDAS DICK & CO. use more OIL OF SANDALWOOD than all the Wholesale and Retail Druggists and Perfumers in the United States combined, and this the sole reason why the pure Oil is sold cheaper in their Capsules than in any other form.

OIL OF SANDALWOOD is fast superseding every other remedy, sixty Capsules only being required to insure a safe and certain cure in six or eight days. From no other medicine can this result be had.

DUNDAS DICK & CO.'S SOFT CAPSULES solve the problem, long considered by eminent physicians, of how to avoid the nausea and disgust experienced in swallowing, which are well known to detract from, if not destroy, the good effects of many valuable remedies.

Soft Capsules are put up in tin-foil and neat boxes, thirty in each, and are the only Capsules prescribed by physicians.

TASTELESS MEDICINES.—Castor Oil and many other nauseous medicines can be taken easily and safely in DUNDAS DICK & CO.'S SOFT CAPSULES. NO TASTE. NO SMELL.

☞ These were the only Capsules admitted to the last Paris Exposition.

YOUNG MEN

Who may be suffering from the effect of youthful follies or indiscretions, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the alter of suffering humanity. DR. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of seminal weakness, or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure. He would, therefore, say to the unfortunate sufferer who may read this notice, that you are treading on dangerous ground when you longer delay in seeking the proper remedy for your complaint. You may be in the first stage; remember you are approaching the last. If you are pondering on the last, and are suffering some or all of its ill effects, remember that if you persist in procrastination the time must come when the most skillful physician can render no assistance; when the door of hope will be closed against you; when no angel of mercy can bring you relief. In no case has the Doctor failed of success. Then let not despair work upon your imagination, but avail yourself of the beneficial results of his treatment before your case is beyond medical skill, or before grim death hurries you to a premature grave.
